

Activities of the P.S.M Department

The Department of Preventive & Social Medicine of KEM Hospital plays a initial role in spreading Public Health awareness through its Patient Education Cell.

The 3 major roles of the department are

1. Routine activity on going basis-
Essential information on major diabetics, hypertension, anemia, and other communicable diseases in form of Posters put up in OPD for 24 hours and 365 days.
Health education gives by our intern and residents on maternal child health is PNC, Pediatric and ANC wards and in TB OPD.
Health education and counselling in OPDs and Naigaon and Malvani community.
2. Special camps and exhibition -

As special events like World Health Day, World Breast Feeding Week, Women's Day, World AIDs Day, World No Tobacco Day, World Heart Day, etc., in the form of Skits / shots pays by interns, residents of the department in the college as well as in the community.
Posters exhibition and competition in college and community.
Healthy baby and healthy mother competition in the community.
Schools health check ups in BMC schools every year.
Recently Special camps and health talks in the flood affected areas.
Also talks by senior staff member on the radio and television as major communicable and non communicable diseases and general health talks.
3. Special Projects undertaken is the community – with the help of N.G.Os – like Stree Mukti sanghatana, (Ahat, Dilasa, Akash. Humsafar foundation, Avehi, Prerana, Navjivan Samiti, Yuvak Pratishtan, Swadhar, Alert India.