

World Bioethics Day Celebrations 2020

Story Telling competition.

A draft of outline of your Story can be mailed on

1) jyotsnathosar@rediffmail.com

and played live in a zoom meeting in front of judges followed by discussion.

The competition is for UG Medical, OT, PT, Nursing students, PG students, of GSMC & KEMH

Topic : " Benefit and Harm"

Last Date for Submission : 5th October 2020

Rules and regulations

- 1) Stories presented can be authentic! adapted or originally written.
- 2) Story should be of 3-5 mins i.e (300 seconds) including the beginning and end credits.
- 3) Story can be in ENGLISH,Hindi or Marathi
- 4)The World bioethics Day committee will have the exclusive rights to screen story
- 5)Offensive language/ words against any person, Indian Constitution, religion or caste are strictly NOT allowed.

• Judging Criteria includes

- Pronunciation
- Fluency (Pace, voice quality, vocal expression)

- Performance (Confidence, gesture, mimicry)
- Creativity
- Time Management
- How well you deliver the story
- How you make it interesting and relatable

For more information Contact

- About the competition

It will be a competition where participants will have to deliver a story in relation to the theme of this year. Any anecdote from their own life or any situation they have observed in their society or community can also be shared. This is not like delivering a speech it is more like narrating a story. The story should have characters, incidences and learnings.